Reflection & Living Stewardship

"The hand of the Lord feeds us," says the Psalmist, "he answers all our needs." Both Elisha's servant in the first reading and the disciples in the Gospel story who witnessed the feeding of the five thousand saw this happen and knew it to be true.

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who feed the hungry through efforts such as the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, Long Island Cares, Harry Chapin Food Bank and our own Parish Outreach Pantry!

The Pastor's Letter

Today's guest writer is Genny Mitchell. Genny is the parish secretary at St. Martin's so she really is the boss of the parish. She does all the scheduling of meetings, funerals, Mass intentions, and countless other works. She often finds missing documents on my desk that I think I have lost. She does all this with a smile and we are blessed to have her here at St. Martin's.

Feeble Genes

As a young girl in Brooklyn (a long, l o n g time ago), I remember I used to get annoyed at both my parents for being so darn short and passing on those "feeble genes" to me! Mom was 4 feet 10 inches and Daddy was barely 5 feet 2. Their parents were born in Naples, Italy and Palermo, Sicily and were, alas, also short in stature. So naturally I didn't have a chance! While I can't say I was made fun of because of it, it still bothered me. My best friend Virginia and I would meet every day after school and walk home together. Even though I was four whole months older, she was about 2 inches taller than I! Rats!!! Well, life went on as I grew up to be 5 feet 2 (like Daddy) and I pretty much made the best of things by wearing the highest heels I could find as I wobbled my way through my teen years into adulthood.

So why am I writing about such a silly and unimportant "issue" when Father Pat has given me the chance to fill his column with much more important matters? Well I'll tell you. Have you ever seen the reality show on TLC called "The Little Couple?" I absolutely love that show because of all the "reality" shows out there, this one is the real deal. Their names are Dr. Jennifer Arnold and her husband, Bill Klein. Jen is a neonatologist at Texas Children's Hospital in Houston and Bill is a successful businessman. And talk about short in stature! Bill is four feet tall, and Jennifer is three feet 2 inches! They both deal with various skeletal problems, and have been through many surgeries and much pain. I certainly have nothing to complain about.

Jen and Bill are very inspirational in the way they approach life and the joys and challenges it holds. They adopted their son, William, known as Will, from China in 2013 and their daughter Zoey from India, later that same year. They could not have children of their own so they wanted to give children with similar physical issues a chance for a good life. Such children are rarely given up in the United States for adoption but are very often given up or abandoned in poorer foreign countries. They have opened up their home and hearts to these two children who would otherwise have to grow up in poor orphanages.

I think that Bill and Jen are smart, educated, strong individuals who are an example to us all regarding finding joy and happiness whatever one's circumstances and challenges. They use their show as a teachable tool to help educate the public and to give their children the confidence and ability to overcome the many struggles that they will face throughout their lives. Their upbeat and positive attitudes help them to regroup and refocus during difficult times. Jen has been through a rare form of cancer and as far as I know, she is doing very well and cancer free. Recently Bill had yet another serious back surgery and has had to re-learn the meaning of patience during his slow recovery.

On one episode, a child remarked to Jen, "You are so short!" She smiled and answered, "Yes, that's right! That's the way God made me!" Bill also has the same attitude when he hears the same type of remarks. I can't help thinking that at times it must be irksome to keep a smiling face, but I am sure 99% of the time they use that opportunity to teach understanding, acceptance, tolerance and kindness.

So here's to all of us who are short, tall, big, little, or with otherwise "feeble genes." As Jen said, "That's the way God made me!"

Marian Consecration According to the St. Louis de Montfort book, True Devotion to Mary

This online consecration began on July 13th and will culminate on August 15th, the Feast of Mary's Assumption. The Catholic Company released a statement saying that they were promoting the Marian consecration for the persecuted Christians in the Middle East. Those who wish to do this consecration, may simply catch up on the days missed. In total - 33 days.

Follow this format: Google The Catholic Company and sign up to receive the morning offering daily devotionals to be sent to your email address. Once received, scroll down to consecration to Jesus through Mary which appears just below the morning offering prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

You will see the following:

Purpose of emptying yourself to the world

Readings from The Imitation of Christ (no need to purchase the book as the readings are all online)

Prayers: Veni Creator Spiritus, Ave Maria Stellar, Magnificat and Glory Be

Many blessings will come to our parish whenever we honor our Blessed Mother. By honoring her, we also honor her divine Son, Jesus Christ - King of the Universe and Holy Redeemer.

The Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary falls on Saturday, August 15th. The holyday obligation is suspended in the United States when the solemnity falls on Saturday or Monday. Therefore, there is no vigil mass on Friday, August 14th.

However, in reverence to Mary, the 9:00AM Mass on August 15th will be celebrated with readings and music in her honor. Again, you are not obliged to attend this Mass. St. Martin of Tours just wants to give parishioners and visitors to our parish the opportunity to honor the Mother of God on her glorious Assumption.

O most sweet Lady and our Mother, by the merits of thy happy death obtain for us holy perseverance in the divine friendship that we may finally quit this life in God's grace; and unite with the blessed spirits in praising thee and singing thy glories as thou deservest. Amen.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

I thought that as a way of recognizing Father Henry's great service to the parish, I would invite parishioners to write a few sentences or a short paragraph on how Father Henry touched your life.

You might write about a funeral he conducted for your family, a wedding, a time shared at a youth gathering, a visit he made to your home or the hospital or a sermon he gave. It would be my hope to put them all in an issue of the bulletin to honor him and something I think would touch him.

So, email me woodscsr@aol.com or drop off a note to Genny at the office. Please have them in by Saturday, August 15th. - Father Pat, CSSR

Special Collection for Persecuted Christians
Weekend of August 1 & 2, 2015

The number of persecuted Christians in the world has topped a staggering 100 million according to a recent report from Open Doors USA, an organization that assists persecuted Christians. Paying homage recently to the courage of the Apostles and that of the first Christian community, Pope Francis referenced the "atrocious, inhuman and incomprehensible persecutions, sadly present in many parts of the world today, often under the silent gaze of all."

Bishop Murphy urges us to reach out and protect these victims who are suffering and who are so often the targets of violence and murder, along with other ethnic and religious minorities. To that end, a special collection will be taken up in our parish the weekend of August 1-2, 2015 to assist those who are suffering religious persecution in Syria and Iraq and wherever needed.

Please continue to pray for peace and if you are able, to support this special collection to assist for our brothers and sisters in Christ.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRYABORTED BABY PARTS FOR SALE:*Washington D.C. July 21, 2015 (CNA/EWTN News)*Excerpts from: Catholic News Agency:

Another undercover video released today shows a senior official at Planned Parenthood flippantly discussing monetary compensation for aborted baby organs, and the alteration of abortion procedures to ensure that the organs are intact.

The eight minute video was released by the citizen journalists group Center For Medical Progress, which reports on medical ethics. It is the second video released as part of their "Human Capital," the result of a three year investigative study of Planned Parenthood and its transfer of aborted babies for money.

The first undercover video was made public last week, showing the organizations senior director of Medical Services discussing the "donation" of body parts of aborted babies for "reasonable" compensation. The Planned Parenthood official estimated the price for the body parts from $30 to $100 per "specimen."

Planned Parenthood has defended the practice, "saying that it is not making significant or illegal profits from the process, and that it receives appropriate consent from mothers.

Federal law generally prohibits the selling of human tissue but allows for the donation of tissue with "reasonable payments" for the "transportation, implantation, processing, preservation, quality control, or storage of human fetal tissue." It explicitly prohibits the sale of tissue for "valuable consideration."

The video also includes a discussion of possibly adjusting the abortion procedure of certain babies to better deliver an "Intact Specimen" to the organ harvesters.

More undercover videos could be release in coming weeks. A lawyer from Planned Parenthood sent a letter to Rep. Fred Upton, Chair of the House and Commerce Committee, which is launching an investigation after the release of the first video.

Father Frank Pavone of Priests For Life spoke in stark terms about Planned Parenthood. "In the light of what they do to kill children and sell their parts, it is clearly immoral to give any support or transact any business with Planned Parenthood."

Most insurance policies, including Medicare, are honored. Confidential information and appointments are available by calling Dr. Giuliani at 631-243-2503.
