Reflection & Living Stewardship

Good stewards in a parish are like the yeast in today's Gospel. Their selfless gifts of time and talent help the parish grow and thrive, and their example inspires others to become good stewards too.

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish whose words and deeds are kind and selfless, making them "good seed" to be gathered as wheat in the Lord's harvest.

Charismatic Prayer Group

I don't mean to scare you, but you are being stalked! There's a predator looking to take something valuable from you. Satan wants your soul, your peace of mind, and control of your actions and thoughts.

Pastor's Letter

From the age of five until I was twenty-seven, I went to school every September. Granted, it took me three years to pass the third grade! I also spent the first ten years of my priesthood as a teacher. So I always associate September with the beginning of the year rather than January 1st. I think many parents also welcome September with open arms. Now I know we are still in July, and I would be the last person to try to rush us back to school or work, but I have been thinking about “coming attractions” for our parish. When I go to the movies, especially if it is a film that I am very eager to see, and if the coming attractions are about topics of which I have no interest, I want to shout out, Start the movie! I hope these coming attractions don't lead you to shout out, Stop writing!

- Before we hit the first days of September, we have our annual Block Party on August 25th. We also have our annual summer Bible camp August 14th - 18th.
- In September, we will welcome a new parish associate to St. Martin's, Father Denis Sweeney CSSR. Unlike our present staff, he is a Met, Jet, Irishman from Brooklyn (you may be saying, one of them is enough already and now we will have two!)
- When the planning commission of the Town of Oyster Bay gives its approval, we will start on our ramp into the parish cafeteria which will make it accessible for many more parishioners.
- I also hope that the fall will see us placing our new donor board recognizing everyone who was part of our recently completed capital campaign.
- Father Jim will be teaching a Bible Course on the Book of Genesis.
- Rita Verow will be leading a program on Divine Mercy.
- Our first ALPHA program went very well and I think those who participated found it very helpful to their spiritual lives. It is our hope to have a second ALPHA program before Christmas.
- We will have a special stewardship program in the Fall to strengthen our parish finances.
- We welcome Diana Hughes as our new parish youth minister, and we look forward to her ministry here at St. Martin's.
- I will be instituting a weekly period of adoration in our Church.
- We are going to develop a special ministry for those who are pregnant and those who are seeking to become pregnant through the intercession of St. Gerard Majella, our Redemptorist saint.
- We will be opening our parish library (in the smaller room of St. Alphonsus Hall)
- Of course, we look forward to welcoming our children back to our religious education program.
- We welcome those interested in entering our faith community through our RCIA program.
- October 13 is 100th anniversary of the Miracle of the Sun in Fatima, and we will have prayer time to recognize Our Lady of Fatima.

If any of you have ideas for programs that you wish to conduct, please let me know. We pray that the Holy Spirit bless and guide all our efforts to bring us closer to the God who so loves each one of us.

I had a wonderful vacation shared with family and friends. After a short visit to Williamsburg, Virginia, I spent a week in the Outer Banks of North Carolina and a week at my niece's summer home in the Poconos. What more could a person ask for than the ocean and the mountains in the same vacation. Lots of fun, swimming, biking, reading, sharing of family stories and napping! The greatest challenge was resisting the fried snickers bar that one of my great nephews was eating. I missed you and was happy to be back to what has truly become a home to me. It is so nice to hear "How was your vacation?" "Did you get a good rest?" "We missed you!" and "The bathroom in church is leaking!"

The Diocesan Catechetical Congress is a wonderful gathering. The ones I have been able to attend provided excellent sessions on a variety of practical and spiritual topics for those in ministry. The program is very well organized and I highly recommend it to:

All those involved in the following ministries/committees/councils of SMT: religious education teachers; the baptismal ministry of the parish; the RCIA program of the parish; the ALPHA program; parish outreach ministries; visit the sick; lectors; Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist ; the pastoral council, financial council, liturgy committee; music ministry; the parish staff; all who wish to deepen their understanding of their Catholic faith; any person who serves in ministry or is considering serving in a parish ministry. I so believe in this program, that the parish will offer a donation of ten dollars to assist in your attending. - Father Pat

The Divine Mercy/The Second Greatest Story Ever Told Now Is the Time of Mercy

This is a ten week retreat featuring Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC in 10 DVDs. Fr. Michael also wrote 33 Days of Glory and Consoling the Heart of Jesus, both of which were held at St. Martin of Tours.

We will cover a tapestry of wonder and beauty from the threads of the dramatic history of Poland, the transformative message of St. Faustina, the prophetic apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima, the powerful witness of St. Maximilian Kolbe and the world changing papacy of Pope St. John Paul II.

There will be a review of the book at a cost of $5.00 (checks payable to ST. MARTIN OF TOURS CHURCH). The book states: What do The Divine Mercy and the New Evangelization have to do with one another? EVERYTHING! This book teaches that Mercy is the gateway to truth in a wounded and suffering world. - George Weigel, Biographer of Pope St. John Paul II.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

UPDATE ON BABY CHARLIE GARD: CHARLIE GARD, 11 MONTH OLD BABY IN GREAT ORMOND STREET HOSPITAL, IN LONDON was born with a rare form of mitochondrial depletion syndrome, a genetic disease that has left him severely brain damaged. Multiple British courts in Europe have ruled that he is too weak to travel out of the country and he should be allowed to die with dignity. This has ignited a FIERCE DEBATE BETWEEN HOSPITALS WANTING TO TREAT PATIENTS AS THEY SEE FIT AND PARENTS WHO WANT TO MAKE DECISIONS FOR THEIR CHILD. In the U.K. it's not uncommon for courts to side with hospitals over patients. Baby Charlie's parents have been locked in a bitter fight for their son's future, not only for his survival against a debilitating disease, but against the London hospital where he has been a patient since he was just 2 months old and the British courts who say HIS CONDITION IS TOO GRAVE TO CONTINUE KEEPING HIM ALIVE. "Our parental rights have been stripped away," his father, Chris Gard, said in a video he and his wife posted online. "WE CAN'T EVEN TAKE HIM TO OUR OWN HOME TO DIE!"

His parents living in London want him to undergo an EXPERIMENTAL TREATMENT in the UNITED STATES, but doctors say Charlie COULD be in pain and that the new treatment is unlikely to help him. ABC News. July 18, 2017

CHARLIE GARD GRANTED U.S. CITIZENSHIP BY CONGRESS TO FLY TO AMERICA FOR TREATMENT: The decision by US Congress to give the 11 month old citizenship may oblige Great Ormond Street Hospital to release the sick baby so he can receive NUCLEOSIDE THERAPY. An amendment has been passed that grants permanent resident status to Charlie Gard and family so Charlie can get the medical treatment he needs.

Dr. Michio Hirano, a neuroscientist from Columbia University in New York, is said to have spent over five hours TRYING TO CONVINCING DOCTORS, ALONG WITH AN EXPERT FROM A VATICAN HOSPITAL IN ROME. The specialist told the High Court that nucleoside therapy has a 10 percent chance of improving Charlie's condition, adding his research "clearly indicates" it reduces muscle weakness in patients with a similar genetic disorder. He said he hoped a high dose of nucleosides which are found naturally in the body, would enter Charlie's cells, affect the mitochondria and prove "therapeutic."

As reported in last week's article, Pope Francis has offered to have the baby flown to Rome to be treated in their children's hospital. Vatican spokesman Greg Burke urged that Charlie's parents be allowed to "accompany and treat their child until the end." White House media affairs director Helen Ferre said, "Upon learning of baby Charlie Gard's situation, President Trump has offered to help the family in this heartbreaking situation."

Let us pray for this family and the battle they face with the life of their child. Let us pray that the decision rests with the parents of Charlie and not the hospital, or doctors that threaten to take him off life support and not releasing him to the United States or Rome where he could and would undergo treatment.

Let us continue to fight Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia as it becomes a top issue here in our own country.

The Time Keeper by Mitch Albom

From the author who's inspired millions worldwide with books like Tuesdays with Morrie and The Five People You Meet in Heaven comes his most imaginative novel yet, The Time Keeper, a compelling fable about the first man on Earth to count the hours.

Told in Albom's signature spare, evocative prose, this remarkably original tale will inspire readers everywhere to reconsider their own notions of time, how they spend it, and how precious it truly is.

PLEASE PRAY CONSTANTLY FOR THOSE SERVING IN OUR MILITARY

Lord of Hosts, we commend to Your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces at home and abroad. Defend them day by day with Your heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; give them courage to face the perils that beset them; and grant them

Your abiding presence wherever they may be. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
