Weekly Budget: $17,500.00
August 11, 2019: $12,973.19
Sacristy: $2,812.00

Bulletin Reflection

In today's second reading, St. Paul encourages us not to grow weary or lose heart, but to persevere in following Jesus. Our willingness to stand up for the Truth, even in the face of conflict and division, is one way to measure our discipleship.

Living Stewardship - Pillar of Prayer

Never, ever be ashamed of your prayer life. Say grace before every meal, go to Mass, and pray for others. Your prayers may encourage others to start praying as well.

Charismatic Prayer Group

Psalm 27:4 is one of my favorites. "There is one thing I ask of the Lord, this alone I seek. To dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life." No, I'm not moving into the church! When you live in someone's house, you respect their ways. To dwell in the house of the Lord, means to me, to always live to please Him in all I say and do. Come live in the house of the Lord. There's plenty of room!!

Our next meeting is Monday August 19th at 7:30 pm in the HOUSE OF THE LORD! All are welcome. Call 516-993-9672 for prayer requests or for more information.

The Pastor's Letter

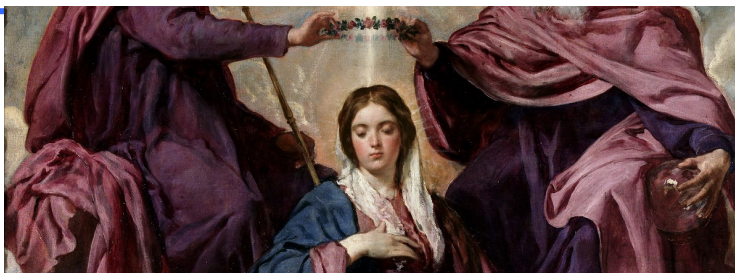

I want to thank all those who put so much work into our Parish Block Party--our committee, volunteers, and the Hartigan Council of the Knights of Columbus. It's a great reminder of our togetherness as a parish. The communion we share as the baptized, which we celebrate around the altar, should extend to the rest of our week and the rest of our lives. The Letter to the Hebrews tells us today that we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. We all have responsibility to each other in living the faith. In this way, our Block Party is both a celebration of us as a parish and a means to grow as a parish made of disciples of Jesus Christ.

This evening I leave for my annual retreat. This year I will be traveling to Ars, France to spend a week at an international priest retreat house near the Shrine of St. John Vianney. St. John Vianney, also known as the Cure of Ars, is the patron saint of parish priests. During this time I will pray for the intercession of St. John Vianney to guide Fr. Sylvester and myself in shepherding our parish. I will also be praying for you and your needs, and for the holiness of priests in our Diocese, especially during these trying times. The timing of the retreat this year will allow me to "recover" from the stress of moving and unpacking, and energize me for the beginning of the "parish year" in September.

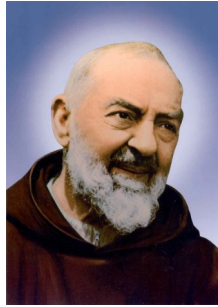

My thanks to Fr. Sylvester and the parish staff who will be covering everything next week. I will have limited access to phone and email so all messages will be returned when I get back next weekend.

Father Christopher Costigan, Pastor

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary Thursday, August 22nd

The Christian Mothers Rosary Confraternity will be attending the 9AM Mass in Mary's honor. The feast is a logical follow-up to the Assumption, and is now celebrated on the octave day of that feast. In his 1954 encyclical To the Queen of Heaven, Pius XII points out that Mary deserves the title because she is Mother of God, because she is closely associated as the New Eve with Jesus' redemptive work, because of her preeminent perfection, and because of her intercessory power.

Padre Pio Holy Hour

Please join us on Tuesday, August 20th at 7:30 in the Eucharistic Chapel for the Padre Pio Hour. His first and second class relics will be venerated.

Gennesaret Retreat for those facing serious illness

A Retreat especially designed for persons who live with a serious illness is planned for September 20, 21, 22nd, 2019 at Montfort Spirituality Center in Bay Shore, N.Y. This retreat offers a respite, a quiet time, an oasis, to enable one to continue the journey. The retreat focuses on God’s love, His forgiveness, and His faithfulness.

To register or receive more information about this weekend, please call: Colette Fanelli (631) 665-7052.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church.

May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more...and serving You, be truly happy. Amen.

FORMED PICK

The Holy Spirit: Third Person of the Trinity

Learn more about the "sweet guest of our soul" who seeks to bring us closer to Christ and eternal salvation. The essential character of the Holy Spirit, the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, and the role the third Person of the Blessed Trinity has played since the creation of the world are discussed.

FORMED PICK FOR ADULTS

The Holy Spirit: Third Person of the Trinity by Father Shannon Collins

In this captivating presentation, Fr. Shannon Collins discusses the essential character of the Holy Spirit and the role the forgotten Person of the Blessed Trinity has played since the creation of the World. Drawing upon Scripture and Tradition, Fr. Collins explains the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit (wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, piety, fortitude, and fear of the Lord) and how He works in the lives of believers. Listeners are sure to come to a better appreciation of this "sweet guest of our soul," who seeks to bring us closer to Christ and eternal salvation. Also included is a bonus talk by Dr. Brant Pietre on the Sacrament of Confirmation.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRYBISHOPS CALL FOR CHANGE IN LANGUAGE AND RHETORIC OF ALL AMERICANS

Bishops from three committees at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) expressed their deep concern about racism and xenophobia that apparently motivated the recent massacre in El Paso and that have motivated numerous other recent mass shootings in the United States. The Chairmen called on our elected officials to exert leadership in seeking to heal the wounds that these shootings have caused and to deal with the scourges of racism, xenophobia, and religious bigotry, including refraining from expressing hurtful, painful, and divisive rhetoric that dehumanizes and polarizes people on the basis of their race, religion, ethnicity, or national origin.

Bishop Joe S. Vásquez of Austin, chairman of the Committee on Migration, Bishop Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of Venice, FL, chairman of the Committee on Domestic Social Development, and Bishop Shelton J. Fabre, Bishop of Houma-Thibodaux, chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism offered the following comments on August 8:

“The tragic loss of life of 22 people this weekend in El Paso demonstrates that hate-filled rhetoric and ideas can become the motivation for some to commit acts of violence. The anti-immigrant, anti-refugee, anti-Muslim, and anti-Semitic sentiments that have been publicly proclaimed in our society in recent years have incited hatred in our communities. Hatred and harsh rhetoric were echoed in the El Paso shooter’s explanation about why he committed this weekend’s shooting, as well as being evident in the motivation of the shooters who attacked the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh last year and the Mother Emanuel AME Church in Charleston in 2015. We, therefore, renew our call to all to act swiftly to stop using hate-filled language that demeans and divides us and motivates some to such horrific violence. Instead, we ask our leaders and all Americans to work to unite us as a great, diverse, and welcoming people.”

Catholic Home Care
Catholic Health Services
 At the heart of health

Each day, more than 2,900 patients turn to the Catholic Home Care team of more than 700 dedicated professionals, para-professionals, and support staff to ensure that their home care needs are being met 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Physicians, discharge planners, insurance case managers, and family members refer patients who can benefit from skilled services in their home environment.

Catholic Home Care provides services to patients in Nassau, Suffolk and Queens counties. Our highly experienced, friendly, and helpful staff are available for referrals and inquiries seven days a week to ensure care coordination needs are met. Referrals can be made from facilities, physicians, families, and patients.
